

ABSTRACT

Bandung cupcake shop is serving order with design by request. customer can send and explain the design by BBM, SMS, Telephone, or go directly to the shop. Before processing the order, employee should counting of daily quota order, check the feasibility of the design, customer identity, and payment records.

Application of Cupcake Design and Order Data Management was built for helping order process and managing order data. this application provide feature of cupcake design as media for creating design. otherwise it, process for quota count, saving customer identity, payment confirmation, and making reports has available at this application. This application was built using HTML, PHP, Framework KineticJS, and using MySQL as database. This application can be used by 3 users, namely: Customers, Employees, and shop owners according to their respective access rights.

keywords: order, HTML, PHP