

ABSTRACT

ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) is a concept that combines and integrating system between business process and the company management, that formed a sytem to manages the company's resources. ERP system covers the area of logistics, HR, manufacturing, finance and so packaged in the form of ERP software. OpenERP is one of the open source ERP software in this research field that designing ERP system is a procurement process in Rumah Sakit Umum Daerah Al Ihsan Hospital that facilitated the purchase management module. In the design module purchase management at RSUD Al Ihsan using SSM (Soft Systems Methodology). SSM is used as a method to describe and incorporate RSUD Al Ihsan business processes with business processes OpenERP. With the purchase management module design OpenERP is expected to implemented so as to help the process of procurement in RSUD Al Ihsan.

Keywords : ERP, Purchase Management, OpenERP , SSM