Culinary world are about cooking, foods, and kitchen. This phenomenon makes the food lover and food expert curious to keep learning and make a deep research about culinary world. There are several culinary center in other cities, but there's no such thing facility in Bandung with complete facilities, security and comfort guaranteed and affordable location. This design method in the form of data collection, as well as primary and secondary data analysis was done through a survey in Jakarta Culinary Center. So Bandung need a facility to maintain all the activity about cooking education and give the information and tourism in culinary. Bandung Culinary Center is an institution that maintain everything about education, information, and tourism for food and culinary. The theme in the design of Bandung Culinary Center is the Food Culture and Society with the concept of East Meets West. So Bandung Culinary Center with Food and Culture Society theme expected that all visitors can feel the atmosphere and new experiences in visiting the Culinary Center, as well as a motivation for the regions culinary potential to continue to develop culinary in the area.
