ABSTRACT

Aksara Lontara is traditional aksara bugis - makassar. Mainly of the elementary school until junior high school in the sout sulawesi teaching aksara lontara dan bugis language as muatan lokal (Mulok). But there are still many not interested for learn this lesson, if this happens little by little aksara lontara dan bugis language will forgotten. Because this background, so that we're build a mobile application which can be alternatif media for teacher, student, and anyone who wants to learn aksara lontara dan bugis language. By providing 5 feature that is aksara menu, singing, theory, playing a game, and dictionary. This application designed based on android and using the programming language is JAVA, XML, and SQLite as the database. Development methode use prototype model. Based on using the black box testing and questionnaires to 15 people, it can be concluded application aksara lontara learning and bugis dictionary can be alternative learning media to interest students especially android users.

keywords : aplication, android, aksara lontara, dictionary, learning