

ABSTRACT

Administration activities of santri in SMPIT Imam Bukhari Boarding School Jatinangor is very important and the main activity that carried out periodically or at every time. Management of administration data manually will take a long time, both in data collection and in preparing reports administration. Therefore, Web-Based Application For Santri Administration has features that use to help in school business administration management of santri in SMPIT Imam Bukhari Boarding School Jatinangor. This Application use to manage of new santri registration and business administration of santri, like data of penalty, permission and medical history of santri. With this application can usefull in the future as one of recommendation from school management in decide the option to be a better school.

This application built use PHP as language program with framework Codeigniter and MySQL as database server. Execution method use SDLC as Waterfall Model. BlackBox Testing as procedure to do testing program.

keywords: Administration, Santri