

ABSTRACT

Mien R. Uno Foundation (MRUF) is a foundation that cares about the future of the younger generation. Mien R. Uno Foundation is located at Jalan Jenggala II No. 9 South Jakarta believe that entrepreneurship is the best way to alleviate the younger generation of poverty and unemployment. MRUF have entrepreneurship programs for the younger generation to become a successful entrepreneur. Through entrepreneurship program, the recipients of which do not yet have a business MRUF will be guided to realize their business ideas. As for those who just want to start to open a business in order to increase business scale guided. The program consists of training, mentoring, counseling and financing. On 4-8 March 2014 Mien R. Uno Foundation carry out the third training in the city. The series of training activities are documented in the form of video. The purpose of the video was made is to inform the public MRUF program with video is instructive, entertaining, and contains content that can motivate Indonesian students to want to try to entrepreneurship. Data collection techniques and making the concept of the video through the evaluation of the video that has been made in training activities in the city before. Data collection also held discussions with the foundation about any flaws in video documentation before.

Keywords: Video, Documentation, Inform, Mien R.Uno Foundation, Entrepreneurship