

ABSTRACT

Wedding Organizer application is used to facilitate the public to view the information and make a reservation of the building, decoration, catering , invitations , bridal salon without having to come directly to the place in question . If the validation is already in the process the user will get a sms notification that the reservation has been processed. Development of this application is divided into two,namely with webste and android. Website built with PHP , MySQL , and Codelgniter framework , while android built with the Java programming language.With the construction of this application, the spread of information Wedding Organizer can be centralized and easier for people to get information .

Keywords : Wedding Organizer , Information , Website , Android