

ABSTRACT

The success level of a company seen from the human resource's quality and behavior, one thing that company have to pay attention is safety and health's of the employees. A company whom has apply the occupational safety and health management system (SMK3) is PT Nusa Ampera Indah Cilacap which is a risky services company with heavy equipment (forklift, truck, dan loader) and have hazard accident every years.

This research is quantitative descriptive research which use questionnaire, interview, and literature for collecting data. The result of data analysis is presented on table with percentage as the data.

All of the company's employees is involved to this research that numbered 50 people. The aim of this research is to analysis and identification the implementation of SMK3 by using the five dimension of PP RI Number 50 Years 2012 (Government Regulation).

Based on the percentage result of company's SMK3 implementation included in the good category that reach 77,58%. It means, the company's implementation of SMK3 is all good.

Keywords: EMKL, Occupational Safety and Health, SMK3