

ABSTRACT

PT Natural Utama Nusantara is a company engaged in the sale of organic products located in Yogyakarta. The transaction process at PT Natural Utama Nusantara covers the purchase of materials, production, and sales. Recording transactions in this company already use the application but not integrated any existing transactions. This unintegrated record leads to frequent errors in recording of careless reports. This research provides an integrated solution to the financial statements. The functionality of this application includes purchases in cash or credit, production, cash or credit sales, and presents an income statement. This application uses the waterfall method of waterfall. This application is a web-based application that in the preparation using the programming language PHP, HTML, and javascript by using the framework Code Igniter. Database storage using MySql. It is expected that with this application will facilitate the company in presenting the financial statements and recording transactions.

Keywords; purchase; production; sales; web-based applications; CI framework