

ABSTRACT

Education is a basic needs required to every single human being in acquiring knowledge and insight. Formal education or non formal is facility as a media develop the character of children's personalities. Through education, someone would be able to perform the process to distributing the potential that has been there from congenital.

While the role of daycare is having role no less important for those parents who are have many commitments so that lack of care for their children's growth period. In children's golden age, the activities that were taught in kindergarten this will help to build the better personalities in their social environment, families, even for themselves.

Keywords : Children's preschool, children, children's characters, interior, colors.