

ABSTRACT

Tektona waterpark is an area for recreation that located in Tektona Waterpark Kampung Batu Malakasari which study found infrastructure tourist attraction although last year which is the completeness of a recreation place for that is needed in order to serve the needs of tourists in the midst of Tektona. Away from that there is a problem stood up in the paper the spacecraft Tektona Waterpark the use of a depository occurred as a result of an orderly lifestyle and the habit of visitors Tektona Waterpark .The purpose of this research provides a complete solution to in the form of facilitate the habit of visitors Tektona Waterpark in order to get an overall sense of security and comfort during his stay in recreational. Based on the problem scheduled for research methods that were used was a qualitative methodology with the approach ethnography of bond issuance will be studies to make a statement on a social group that forbid that it should have in direct contact or participating in a habitual activities with an object that is analyzed.

The technique in the research is the observation techniques survey data to do research data to be used in supporting ongoing research .It is the result of research facilities and make a storage area in the Tektona Waterpark Baleendah habits that can facilitate the visitors tektona waterpark, with the hope of tourists will felt satisfaction for service and in turn will improve the attractiveness of the tourism

The conclusion from the research is make a storage medium which is designed as a the facilities and infrastructures to facilitate a visitors. Storage is actually designed there could be mergers with infrastructure wait that is going to used for the storing of goods congenital with repaired, comfortable and practical and is feasible to be to minimize of criminal in the the arena tourist attraction although last year tektona waterpark. A Storage media it was possible to have whole range around mass produced by making an extra feature on furniture who had a dimension a organists.

Key words: aspects concerning the achievement of the user , tourist attraction although last year , a storage medium