

ABSTRAC

Rest area is really needed by floating market visitors, because visitors will search for a place to rest after enjoying entertainment facilities all day in floating market. This research purpose is to explore material that will be used in designing roof and backrest of the rest area. The background of this research is to get the suitable material for designing backrest and roof of the rest area. The methods used in this research are descriptive and qualitative method. Collecting data is done with interview and observation technique. The result of this research is designing backrest and roof of rest area using eco-friendly material because floating market concept is also eco-friendly.

Keywords : Backrest, Roof, Eco-Friendly, Floating Market.