

ABSTRACT

Political elites carry out political dynamics, and political safaris, and dismantle the nominating coalition. As an active state and political official, he contributed to the political dynamics ahead of the 2024 elections. Jokowi has central figure based on his ability to embrace or eliminate 2019 political opponents to join the coalition. Political speeches as part of political communication are a source for understanding the direction of government policy and Jokowi's views on strategic issues faced by Indonesia ahead of the 2024 elections. This research uses a qualitative, descriptive approach with Teun a Van Dijk's Critical Discourse Analysis Model to examine why this discourse has become Jokowi's presidential agenda. The research finds that democratic practices based on oligarchy can be sourced from the fame of public officials who pioneered from the grassroots or without influenced by wealth and became a force. This analysis can contribute ideas about leadership continuity discourse that President Jokowi has various dictions. In social context he is good at influence to strengthen the existence of feudalism, oligarchy, and democracy in the second period, the findings on the social cognition part of President Jokowi are trying to reduce polarization.
