

ABSTRACT

The company executive often face the three aspects that is financial statement, operational reports, and administration reports. But most of them have a barrier in decision making which caused by raw information prepared and take a long time to analysis the very complicated reports without any tools to help and it is often the executive make mistake in analysis and late in making business decision

Therefore, it is an urgent need to have a tool which help the decision maker in the company to know how the health and the performance of the company with the result that the executive can make an appropriate and effective business decision.

By using this Decision Support System ( DSS ) software which is use the Multicriteria ( Goal ) Decision Making method to analyze expected to earn become an appliance assist in analysing financial statement, operational reports, and administration reports yielding information which precisely and quicker relatively about condition of health and the company's performance. There are the result of this system which made coming from 2001 data up to 2004 discovered from 5 analysed company use this software there is company discovered have good performance ( A ) however owning mainstream to experience of bankruptcy to three year come, company of have good performance ( AA ) and not have mainstream to experience of bankruptcy to three year come, company of have good performance ( A ) however owning mainstream to experience of bankruptcy to three year come, company of have good performance ( AA ) however owning mainstream to experience of bankruptcy to three year come.

Key words : Decision Support System, Financial, Operational, Administration, the Health and the Performance of Company, Multicriteria ( Goal ) Decision Making method.