

ABSTRACT

VPNFlexi is new service for flexi customer. With VPNFlexi in same flexi customer can build group or network. Every member in one group, can call by using four digit which alias number which owning of.

In this final project will implement enterprise application integration system in VPNFlexy service. System to be integrated is Geneva/SBF20, MakXi, CCF, MSPG and EAIP. Geneva/SBF20 is billing machine, which saving customer data and phone billing. MakXi is system which using flexi card management. CCF used for flexi customer management in web based. MSPG used to arrange member, connecting flexi card with HLR/WIN. And EAIP used to note log in bussiness process running.

By using EAI system can expecting reduced total cost of investment and also enhancement various different application, facilitating process of data consolidation and information in different system, and minimize data redudant.

WebMethod is tool which is used to implement EAI in VPNFlexy services.

Key word : VPNFlexi, Enterprise Application Integration, webMethods