

ABSTRACT

One of the operational activities done by Insurance Company is handling the vehicle claim. Claim itself could be defined as an exchange demand for the lost or damage of vehicle that become a burden for the insurance company.

The technology nowadays has developed very well, that's why people demand on the availability of information and the quick data shipping. In this case, they want a minimum time process when they submitting the vehicle claim.

Software for Supporting the Vehicle Insurance Claim Submission in PT. Berdikari Insurance is a software that helping company to done the data claim registration, data claim shipping and the availability of claim information in a minimum time.

This software is build by using the sequential linier model, base on web and implemented on PHP language program. This software is using MySQL to manage the database.

Keyword : claim, insurance, web, PHP & MySQL