ABSTRACT

In this final project, we had implemented web portal applicaton which will provide informations or activities from Shiddiqiyyah Organization. Web portal application can use for interact about employee and user. Web portal applicaton afford to manage member's data based subdistrict, regency and province in Indonesia. This application can also to use online and direct registration.

This Final Project was built trough structured design and analysis with the waterfall modelling. This application was implemented using PHP and Java Script as programming languages, MySQL as database system, Wireworks MX and Macromedia Dreamweaver MX as graphical design software. And also Microsoft Visio as a tools for modeling system.

Key word : Portal, Waterfall.