ABSTRACT

EXPRESS TAILOR is shop that located at wiradesa subdistrict of Pekalongan. Express tailor represent the shop selling assorted cloth as well as serving service sew. During the time Express tailor use the traditional sale system. The sale data, service sew, and employees remuneration still be kept and noted in a book. Of course this problem make the owner difficult to getting information quickly because there aren't application which can assist the job.

This application is an information system which can assist to overcome the problem of related to cloth sale, service sew and employees remuneration at shop of Express Pekalongan.

To support all function above, the application created based on analysis and design using waterfall method. The programming language that used is visual basic 6.0 with the MySQL database.

Keyword : Cloth shop, Service Sew, Employee Data, Visual Basic, MySQL