

ABSTRACT

Undang-undang No. 4 Tahun 1979 which talk about children welfare declare that “The meaning of children are someone who have the age below 21 years old and who haven't married yet (taken from <http://www.hukum-online.com>).” When they get fulfillment, such as affection, education, sanitary, and protection from discrimination and deviation behavior in their growth process, Those things will make a good result to children character building, that they will grow up and become into positive personal and act suitable with norm and regulation.

But it can't be denied, that sexual harrasement is the case which has been occured for many times in Indonesia, and most of the case has the children as the victym. The purpose of this research is to observe about how the sex education as the preventif action has given to children by Kindergarten as the formal education institution. This research take TK Darul Hikam which located at Jl. Ir. H. Juanda 285, Dago Atas, Bandung.

This research use qualitative method as the approachment, and the documentation was gotten from passive participation observation along one month below and interview to 5 informants, which 4 informants as the key informants, and 1 informant as the addition.

Keyword: Sex Education, Interpersonal Communication, Qualitative, Case Study