

ABSTRACT

This is a process management application lending a bicycle that aimed to easy the process of lending by his computerized make the process and become more capable of distinguishing borrowers who are based on the status of member and non member. Lending to support the application of this required data input from the operators as the main parties who would perform the process in the construction. After the operator of login to give the right of admin, borrowers can do the process of lending where will be conducted in every different shelters. Making the application is built with oracle application express (APEX) where the use of programming language sql database as of this application.

Keyword: Application, Operator, APEX, sql