

ABSTRACT

Technology at this moment could be utilized in the process of learning one of them with multimedia technology. Learning process for public elementary school dayeuhkolot 8 especially indonesian subjects less interested students with the process of learning are already there , because there are not yet of digital media and rely on only props. Based on these problems needed an application interactive learning to read indonesian language to primary school level with spelling based html5. Utilizing html5 as a medium to help the learning process . On the application this student can know the sound of language, sentences and other material in the form of text, picture , sound, and animation simple. Methods used is a method of addie was. According to results of the survey that has been done 62.5% of students said the application of this help in the process of learning indonesian language.

Keywords: Technology, Multimedia, HTML5, Interactive, ADDIE