

ABSTRACT

Web-based application for the asset management belonging to the regional Government of Majalengka Regency equipped with Barcode Reader case study Dinas Pendidikan Kabupaten Majalengka, is an application that can help in the process of management of goods belonging to the regional government on the reporting of asset according the conditions made by the school to the Office equipped with barcode reader. In addition, this application helps the school or Department within the party controlling the development of asset by using graphs. This application is created using the waterfall model. In the process of making choices about information collection is done with the business process running using interviews to related parties, the collection of data or reports that are involved in the process of management of assets, design of system proposals that will help the process before so more ease. The tools used in making application is the framework code igniter (ci), programming language php hypertext preposesor (php), mysql database, the tools other like notepad++, xampp, web browser, microsoft excel, and corel draw.

Keywords : application, of goods belonging to the regional government, barcode readers.