

ABSTRACT

Application module development parents content management system (CMS) children's child care and early childhood education is an application to help parents interact and see the development of the child when in the Park's education and early childhood education. This application is created by using the methods of the working prototype that consists of two applications website and mobile application (Android). Application on the website was built using the concept of a Content Management System (CMS), MySQL as the database and the Yii Framework.

The functionality contained within the application website and mobile application including the registration online, see child development every day in the daily report, see the results of development during one semester in the portfolio, view activities outside of studying and looking at the financial status of the child.

Keywords: website, mobile application, Yii, MySQL