

ABSTRACT

LAZISMU Mujahidin Bandung is an institution of zakat, infaq, shadaqah , or other benefaction management. The distribution of funds and goods which did by LAZISMU are devided into two, the fund which is spent on internal activity and on external activity. The distribution of funds and goods are still utilize Microsoft Excel and as the result the officer of LAZISMU had difficulty to identify the process of the distribution. Through the help of web-based application, the distribution of funds and goods could be managed properly, so the data are able to be identified clearly. In implementation step is using PHP programming code and MySQL for database management system. The application has the capability to handle all of the distribution of funds, including the process of funds allocation, the distribution of internal and external funds and goods, proposing the budgetary funds, report of the funds and goods distribution, and also accounting records such as journals and general ledgers.

Keywords : The distributions of funds and goods, Proposing funds and goods, PHP, MySQL.