

ABSTRACT

Siomay Hade is a manufacturing company that produce and sell dumplings. In this company still do management financial which use notebooks and calculate using calculator. it will make any errors in recording and calculation. In recording the cost of raw materials, labor costs and factory overhead costs and the preparation of the income statement is not in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS). This condition will cause the management is can't get accurate data. In this final project will produce an application that can compile profit / loss report. Applications are made is a web-based application using PHP programming language and MySQL as the database. For method development is using the Software Development Cycle (SDLC) or also called the software development lifecycle using the waterfall model.

Keywords: Application, Web, PHP, MySQL, Income Statement.