

ABSTRACT

Contemporary Art Gallery is a place for artists to present contemporary artworks to people and to maintain the artworks, as well as an entertainment tool and education tool for people about knowledge and art development. Art Gallery Visual Contemporary Design in Bandung City refers to visual art exhibition of contemporary Video Art and Installation Art which enable transfer my heritage building located at Jalan RE. Martadinata 209, Bandung Wetan, Bandung City, West Java 40114, Indonesia in order to maintain the cultural heritage of Bandung through building form, ornamentation, size, material, building construction and interior of the building. The important thing to be noticed in this design is the display system that can increase the value of the appreciation society. The circulatory system that affect the flow of artworks on display and the facility needs room for gallery activities that are dynamic in order to respond to the needs and provide convenience for artists, visitors, and managers.

Art Gallery Visual Contemporary Design: Video Art and Installation Art in Bandung City is expected to be a vessel exhibition of a creative, interactive, and to help increasing the art space's function itself, therefore human need in an art space is completed, and it gives positive impact in development of Bandung's contemporary art.

Keywords: art gallery, contemporary, heritage, bandung