

ABSTRACT

Bandung is one of the most populous city in Indonesia. Congestion becomes a problem that occurs in densely populated settlements. The problems that occur due to people who do not heed the rules. Followed by the development of existing delivery criticism by the public should be efficient. Through comedy one can express criticism surrounding environment with language that is lighter and mengibur. The sitcom is a medium to express disquiet in the community with characters and themes that can be customized to the issues to be raised, with the discussion light and can entertain the public.

Keyword :Friendship, character, social, confilct