

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are several people that i would like to thank upon the completion of this research, first of all is for my supervisor, Jimmy Tirtawangsa, that gives his straightforward guidance during the research.

I also want to thanks my father, mother and sister which provide unparalleled support and encouragement for me in order to face my fears during the research, and financial support which without both of them, this research will not be completed.

I hope my research will give interesting insight on how spam being processed in the future and this research will push forward knowledge as it is intended to be.

To the infinity, and beyond

Rian Hardinata