

ABSTRAC

Medical service for poor people always became government attention, along with growth amount of poor people and increase of medical service cost. ASKESKIN program from government help poor people little bit however so many obstacle at implementation. Medical service program for poor people need to be improved. Ask participate from neighborhood society, methodically to support this program.

This planing is required to make easier for hospital and poor family using this program, And also describe a blue print for hospital and social's foundation to integrate medical service program for poor family at Bandung regency.

With this program, poor family not to be worried to get expensively medical treatment because in this program all of medical cost would payed by a organizer

This program also help government in order to decrease social problem on medical service for poor family. Beside that poor family could be help to fulfill medical treatment needed.

Keyword: ASKESKIN, Medical service, neighborhood participation