Terminology

Lead time : The time needed for goods that has been ordered or produced from the supplier or the company itself

Stock On Hand : The inventory that exists or possesed by the company in certain period.

Over stock : The condition where there is an over product exist in company or in the inventory system.

Reorder point : The time where the company should produces or orders the goods.

Koli : one kind of package for Al-Qur'an that has been used to store finished good