

Abstract

The development of technology that increasing making the internet became one of the needs of every human being. Every thing can be solved more easily with the use of internet facilities, including in the need of education. In addition, access to the internet network is more extends. Like Elementary School of Pelabuhan 01 which is located in a Village in Majalengka, currently have internet facility. Teaching-learning process that take place in that Elementary School has been exploiting the internet as a tool in the transfer of science or as media of learning. Teachers can take advantage of the internet to add references about how to teach in various way. The purpose of this studi is to understanding how the utilization of the internet among teachers in Pelabuhan 1's Elementary School using Internet as a helping tools or media of learning teaching process.

This type of research is qualitative research in descriptive. Besides getting data from books, journals, articles, or previous research, this research is get the data through the method of interview directly with 4 informant who have a snitch among with this research. All tbe informant is divided into two parts: the main informant and the advocate of informant. Two of the msin informants in this research is the teacher in that Elementary School. The result of this research has shown that the utilization of the internet become less than maximum when the supporting facilities is not complete. In addition, teacher's understanding about the internet and the development of technology becomes important when the internet and the development of technology itself becomes a necessity in the field of education.

Keywords: Internet, Technolgy Development, Education Needs