

Abstract

Coffee is a brewed drink prepared from roasted coffee beans, which are the seeds of berries from the Coffea plant. Coffee has a lot of variants and various ways to process with various equipments that support. Barista is a profession whose the job is to process the coffee beans become coffee to be served to the coffee lovers. But so many points of view from common people who didn't understand truly about this profession make barista underestimated. Barista is not only about brewing coffee, but it is also about brewing with knowledge and techniques. In particular, the documentary film entitled Dari Tangan Sang Ahli Yogyakarta (Barista) took the background from some barista working at coffee shops in Yogyakarta because coffee shops in Yogyakarta are growing rapidly. This film also took the background on International Coffee Day which was held in Yogyakarta. International Coffee Day itself was an event organized by International Coffee Organization. Every barista in Yogyakarta had their own stories about themselves which made them plunged into the world of coffee and chose that profession. This documentary film had the duration of 18 minutes 10 seconds and used Direct Cinema method, a film approaches to the subject. Technically, the shooting presented an interesting thing and gave explanation that this profession is not only about brewing coffee, this profession could be learned by everyone and everywhere. And barista could be assumed as a unique and promising profession if it was persevered.

Keywords: documentary film, coffee, Yogyakarta City, coffee shop, barista