

ABSTRACT

In this modern era, education, science, and information are one of most important things in society. The increasing in technology development nowadays urges everyone to always have update information in order to survive in every aspect in life. Reading can make people to have more education and information. Bandung government keeps attempting the interest in reading in society. Library exists as a bridge to find education and information. Library with appealing interior designs can support society's reading interest which is also a Bandung government program to increase society's interest in reading. Seeing this problem, it needs new and appealing interior design concepts. Designing with recreation and educative concept in library can be one of the solutions in order to keeps people come and comfort with the library's atmosphere.

Keywords: Public Library, Reading Interest, Bandung.