

ABSTRACT

Technology is growing very fast, even it's in almost every aspect of human life. The human needs makes information technology grows fast. One of technology that is very popular right now is smartphone. The purpose of this research is to develop application on Android device. By that purpose, multiple cameras control application is developed to help people control a room. Beside camera movement control, users can see video live, look a door and set the alarm from Android devices. The conclusion from this research is to make an application which is able to monitors a room using multiple cameras that controlled from Android devices.

Keywords - mobile, camera, monitoring.