ABSTRACT

Vocational secondary schools and admissions, to know acceptance and expenditure incurred, then recording in transactions required to be done. To know transactions and transactions, this application is used to create reports in the form of journals, financial statements, income statements, reports of cash receipts and disbursements. This application can help schools to research and collect information in black boxes and manual calculations as well as in the making of applications that develop the application of System Development Lifecycle (SDLC) with waterfall method.

Keyword-acceptance; web-based web applications