(Documentary Film About The Struggle of a Woman's Road Sweeper in Bandung)

ABSTRACT

Nowadays, the heavier charge of life increasing the desire to work in every years. Every single person encouraged to getting a job to fulfill their life. At the age of emancipation, every jobs are getting more flexible, which a lot of woman start to entering a professional world. It happening because a woman also do have a rights for hired, and have a responsibility for support the families. Woman is one of God's creatures, who have persistence and more patience than a men in living a lives. Women can also be defined as the figure of a mother who gave birth to a child. Mother is a considerate person to the circumstances of the world. Her sacrifice was extraordinary, there's nothing can be measure to. A Mother would do anything to get her child being success without a rewards, even if it should risked her life though. It's just an ordinary hopes by a Mother to see her child for being success. Therefore, the author is interested to filming a story of a womans life named Dewi that works as a janitor and a parking girl, and roled as a wife with two childs on twenty minutes of documentary movies. Ibu Dewi's works every single day to earn some money to living the families, within' so many challenge of life and a heavier lifes charge out of the streets, make this topic worthy to lifted into a documentary movies. The production of this movies was taken by DSLR cameras to support a sharpen images with FULL HD technology.
