

TERMINOLOGY

Kanban	: A signboard which is used to control the production flow.
Just In Time	: A philosophy to produce goods in accordance with the required amount, as needed, and in the appropriate amount of needs.
VSM	: Chart that represent the activities within production flow focused on activity duration with the purpose to eliminate non-value added activities.
Lead Time	: The length of delivery time needed from order until it received
CONWIP	: A method that assumes that parts are moved in standard containers which have the same amount of work

