

ABSTRACT

Abstract- Toko Kabita Sport Pangkalpinang is a trading company that provides sports equipment in Pangkalpinang, Bangka-Belitung Islands. All transactions carried out on this company are still conventional, all transactions are recorded on a piece of paper that does not cover the possibility of data loss, incompatibility of transaction data that has been made so that accounting records are not appropriate. Along with the development of technology today, an application is made that can manage the purchase, sale, ordering, and recording of appropriate accounting reports. Writing the program code in this final project application, using Codeigniter (CI) and master data using MySQL. Testing of applications using the Blackbox Testing method. This application has the functionality of being able to manage account data, manage supplier data, manage goods data, manage cash purchase data, manage cash sales data, manage cash and credit orders, manage accounting records in the form of journals.

Keywords- Retail, Barcode, CI, MySQL, Web Based Application