

ABSTRACT

Admission of Activities Application In Data and Information Center that is used to admission of activities for staff satuan kerja/inker in Ministry Of Health Of The Republic Of Indonesia. This application was built to facilitate the staff to admission of activities like admission hosting, admission collocation, update data hosting, upgrade space hosting and then report of handover hosting, because the current process still uses Microsoft Word, data must be optimized. This application aims to facilitate head of division to makes it easy to approve the application for admission of activities that have been carried put by the staff satuan kerja/inker. The application is built using the PHP language, based on the website and with the CodeIgniter framework. The application development process uses the SDLC Waterfall method. The final result of this application can be used and applied to Ministry of Health of Republic Of Indonesia especially in Data and Information Center.

Keywords: Hosting, Collocation, Admission, Activities, Approval.