In line with current developments, the Al Muttaqin Islamic Education Foundation will establish boarding school education with a new location. With the establishment of an Islamic-based school it is expected to be an appropriate alternative choice for parents to deliver their children to get a good education, superior and able to compete. This is a step towards realizing an Islamic-based education center in the City of Tasikmalaya that is able to produce the next generation of the nation and become rahmatan lil'alamin. Al Muttaqin High School Boarding School will be established at the location of the Educational Environment Zone, Jalan Siliwangi, the village of kahuripan, sub-district of Tasikmalaya City, West Java. Designed with a Modern Islamic theme and the Concept of Comfort on Boarding. With the development of education in this region is expected to be a stimulant for the surrounding area to develop. Building the glory of Islam through education in the modern era, giving the image of a modern, superior, visionary Islamic school.
