

ABSTRACT

Puskesmas is one of the most important public health service facilities in Indonesia. Advances in information technology today are as meaningful to human life patterns as information systems are. The existence of the processing of data into information by computerization It is very important that one of the public health service facilities requires this technology, Majegan Public Health Center which contains Klaten district, Central Java in conducting outpatient processes starting from registration, poly selection, queue number. This application was built using the PHP programming language, with the Codeigniter framework and its database using MySQL. The application development method uses Waterfall success.

Keywords: Puskesmas, outpatient management, Registration.