

ABSTRACT

In this pandemic time, there are a lot of outdoor and indoor and any other mass gathering activities are restricted due to COVID-19, It really affects how we socialize and interact with each other. Almost all public spaces require us to use mask and do other health protocol to minimalize the chance got infected by the virus. Aside from following health protocol, vaccine plays a big role on minimize the fatality and infection rate. Health protocol and vaccine are crucial in slowing the infection rate. Vaccine socialization from government is keep happening, however there are still some people that are worried to get vaccine shot and some of them don't even believe in vaccine. This might be caused by hoax that spread on online and offline. Vaccine socialization is essential to educates and to accomplish COVID-19 vaccination program nationwide. Hence, this research aims for only designing informative media and in this case are digital infographic and related medias to educate and socialize to public about COVID-19 Vaccine and hopefully it could help lessen any hoax and misinformation around COVID-19 especially about the vaccine.

Key Words: COVID-19, Vaccine, digital infographic. Ebook