Abstract

Our application use for show user about Musical instrument of Aceh City based on Augmented Reality Technology. The main character of this apps was 3D object to make more realistic. This apps also have some sample audio from kind of musical instrument. While use this apps user should choose which musical instrument will show up as AR object. This apps will also show information about musical instrument that has been choosed.

Keywords : Application, musical intruments, Augmented Reality