

ABSTRACT

In growth period, every kids need to get a lesson about sex education, especially sexual abuse. With a massive internet and media development, a lot of sexual predators get their victim more easy through social media. this research aimed to educate kids about online child grooming with illustration book that relate with kids nowadays. This research use a quantitative research using observation, interview, and research study, and also qualitative research with a questioner. With an illustration book, kids can get a sexual education about online child grooming, So kids have the awareness about online child grooming and understand the situation when they experience it and be able to protect themselves. Kids can protect themselves against sexual predators and online child grooming situation through an enough information and education. One of the ways to get the information is reading a book that relate and attractive with themselves, such as an illustration book.

Keywords : Sexual Harassment, Online Child Grooming, Information Media, Children