

ABSTRACT

Humans are social beings who interact with one another, humans themselves are born on this earth from different races and they have the right to embrace their respective beliefs. In this case, of course, every human being must have tolerance between fellow human beings, some countries such as Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia and others that have implemented Beautiful Tolerance, namely by building places of worship from various beliefs they hold. Religious harmony is one of the goals of religious tolerance. This is motivated by several incidents that show symptoms of sharpening inter-religious relations. The presence of major religions affects the development of the life of the Indonesian nation and adds to the diversity of the Indonesian nation, although this plurality contains the potential for conflict, the attitude of tolerance among adherents of various major religions is truly a reality in the life of the Indonesian nation.

Keyword: Tolerance; and Religion