

LIST OF TERMS

MSMEs: Micro, small, and medium-sized enterprises are one of Indonesia's and a large number of groups' strengths in building economic growth.

HTML stands for HyperText Markup Language, and it is the standard markup language for documents designed to be displayed in internet browsers.

CSS: Cascading Style Sheets are rules for organizing various web components so that they are more structured and uniform.

PHP stands for Hypertext Preprocessor, and it is a scripting language with common functions that is primarily used for web development.

UML: The Unified Modeling Language (UML) is a set of structures and techniques for modeling object-oriented programs (OOP) and their application