

ABSTRACT

Performance or what is called work performance is the result obtained by a person in carrying out his dependent duties. The development of this Employee Performance Data Information application was not designed and built other than for the Ketok Magic Workshop. In this application, you can perform and view an assessment of the work and users performed. This application facilitates the parties concerned in evaluating employee performance.

Keywords: Performance, Assessment, and Employees