5. Dr. Lucy Pujasari Supratman, S.S., M.Si., as the Supervisor of the author who during the writing process always helps patiently in providing directions and suggestions.
6. Sylvie Nurfebiaraning, S.Sos., M.Si., as Lecturer Guardian writer who always guides and provides direction during the lecture process from beginning to end.
7. All Lecturers and Staff of the Communication Studies study program, Faculty of Communication and Business, Telkom University who have provided direction and knowledge to the author.
8. Friends who are always willing to help and encourage the writer during the process of writing the thesis: Ms. Ezra, Ayu, and Alwan.
9. Ghina, a friend since childhood who has given her support to the writer.
10. Fani, Luna, Saada, Anggun and Teer who have impressed the writer while studying at Telkom University.

11. Friends who are both fighting for the land of dreams: Kak Derti, Via, and Ibnu who have prayed and encouraged me.
12. The informants are also the closest friends who have been willing to provide information during the research.
13. As well as to anyone who has kindly prayed and encouraged the writer during this journey.

Due to the limitations of the author's knowledge, the author recognizes that this thesis will not be able to be finished entirely, thus the input and recommendations offered to the writer can help develop excellence in this thesis. Hopefully, this thesis will be useful to readers, especially Communication Science students.
