

ABSTRACT

“ PSM Office Interior Design in Makassar ” is the title of this interior planning project. Providing a forum for management so that they can help build the PSM Makassar football club in order to achieve more. This planning location is on Jalan Kajoalido, Makassar City - South Sulawesi. The design of the Makassar Interior PSM Office in Makassar is limited to interior elements, especially in terms of spatial planning and focusing planning and design on the placement of layouts, furniture and considering the choice of colors related to modern and in accordance with the theme. The formulation of the problem displayed is how to realize the design of the PSM Makassar office that is ideal in structuring layout and space organization / How to present the character and identity of the club in designing a place / facility so that it can attract visitors' interest in financially supporting PSM Makassar football club. The purpose of this work is to Realize the Interior Design of the Makassar PSM Office in Makassar. The interior design of the PSM Office in Makassar is beneficial for management to be managed professionally in terms of places / facilities that can meet standardization.

Keywords: Office, Makassar, Football, Interior Design.