

FOREWORD

Alhamdulillah, all praise and gratitude to Allah SWT for His mercy and blessings, so that the author can complete her thesis entitled “The Influence of Demographic Factors on Financial Literacy (Study on Teachers in Bandung Raya)”. This thesis is intended to fulfil one of the prerequisites for graduation from the undergraduate level of the International ICT Business study programme, Faculty of Economy and Business, Telkom University Bandung.

Authors in this study receive a lot of advice, criticism, recommendations, and inspiration from a variety of sources. Therefore, the author says thanks to:

1. Dr. Astrie Krisnawati, S.Sos., M.Si.M as a research thesis supervisor at Telkom University who has guided and provided valuable input and direction for the completion of this thesis.
2. Dr. Drs. Palti MT. Sitorus, M.M. and Mrs. Andrieta Shintia Dewi, S.Pd., M.M. as the examiner lecturer, who has provided advice, direction, and time for the completion of this thesis.
3. Mrs. Puspita Wulansari S.P., M.M., Ph.D as a guardian lecturer who always helps, supports, and gives guidance to the author from the beginning of entering the lecture until the author can complete her thesis.
4. To the writer’s parents, Mr. Itut Triatmadi and Mrs. Sofia Permana who always provide prayer, motivation, advice, moral support, and material support.
5. All school principals in Bandung Raya who have given permission, assistance, and support in completing this thesis.
6. All parties who assisted the author in completing this research are acknowledged.

The writer acknowledges that this thesis is still far from being perfect. With humility, the authors hope that all the shortcomings in this thesis can be used as learning material for better research in the future.given to the author in completing this thesis.